

Breaking away

Canadian Branch to provide International and Interprovincial competitions

Background

- Once was its own organization going back to 1852
- Still associated with Royal Caledonia Curling Club (R.C.C.C.)
- Became a sub-committee under CQ when various Quebec provincial curling organisations merged
- OVCA broke away from CQ – Branch agreement 2011
- Canadian Branch to provide International (GNCC, and Canada) and Interprovincial (CQ, OVCA and GNCC) competitions
  - These events will be in addition to CQ's Club Series and will not conflict with CQ's Club Series

Funding

- Branch affiliation fee - $25 per club
  - eligible to play in Branch events especially Quebec Challenge Cup series and Gordon International